Location

Lane Head Farm & Barns are located within the Peak District National Park and under 4 miles from the town of Leek which provides both primary and secondary schooling, supermarkets, shopping facilities, restaurants, public houses and a cottage hospital.

The village of Onecote is 1 mile away with a church, village hall and the Jervis Arms public house which is known for good food in the area.

The Peak District National Park is a popular tourist location with enhanced public access for walkers, cyclists and horse riders.

The Peak District is the most visited National Park in the country due to its conurbations nearby of Liverpool, Manchester, Sheffield, Nottingham, Stoke-on-Trent and Derby.

Popular landmarks include Rushup Edge and Mam Tor, Kinder Scout, Win Hill, Stanage Edge, Bamford Edge and the Monsal Trail. Popular tourist destinations that make ideal daytrips include Peveril Castle, Chatsworth House, Haddon Hall, Dove Dale, Manifold Valley and The Roaches.

The adventure parks of Alton Towers, Heights of Abraham, Peak Wildlife Park and Matlock Farm Park are popular with families.

The Property

Comprising a period farmhouse and a courtyard of traditional stone barns which have been converted to provide two holiday letting barns and outbuildings with potential for further development.

The Business

The property has been in the same ownership since 2015 and now provides an established and successful business with a gross turnover of £52,604 up to the end of January 2025 from only 9 months trade. The business is not VAT registered and is for sale due to retirement.

The business provides two high-quality holiday letting barns developed in 2018. The accommodation is promoted via their website: www.laneheadbarns.co.uk, and several other platforms, including Independent Cottages, Tripadvisor, Visit Staffordshire, Accessible Derbyshire, and via social media channels such as Facebook and Instagram. Any last minute availability is supplemented via Airbnb.

In 2023, Enjoy Staffordshire awarded the holiday letting cottages a silver Tourism & Good Food Award. For the year 2024-25, Visit England awarded Morridge View the 4* Gold Award and Mixon View a 5* rating for self-catering.

The cottages sleep up to 12 guests in total and are often booked together by one party. Morridge View Barn has a dining table to accommodate larger groups.

There are a range of outbuildings within the courtyard that are currently used for storage but could be developed into further holiday letting accommodation or interconnected to the existing cottages to provide additional bedrooms, or to make an interconnected holiday letting property, subject to gaining the relevant planning consents.

The paddock, which has separate access onto the lane, has potential to be used for glamping to add additional accommodation to the site, subject to gaining the necessary consents.

Trading information can be provided to bona fide purchasers.

The Farmhouse

The accommodation comprises a large entrance porch with stone floor and an inner hallway providing access to rooms.

Sitting room with exposed wall and roof trusses, an open fireplace with log burner, wooden surround and stone hearth, beamed ceilings and French doors leading out into the sunroom which has a ceramic tiled floor and glazed elevations with views over the surrounding countryside.

The dining room, which is accessed from the inner hallway, is open plan to the kitchen. Beamed ceiling with exposed roof trusses, original exposed brick walls, fireplace with wood burning stove, a wooden mantel and a stone hearth. Door leading to stairs to the first floor.
